

ON THE SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

FR. BOBBY VOGEL'S MASS AT ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

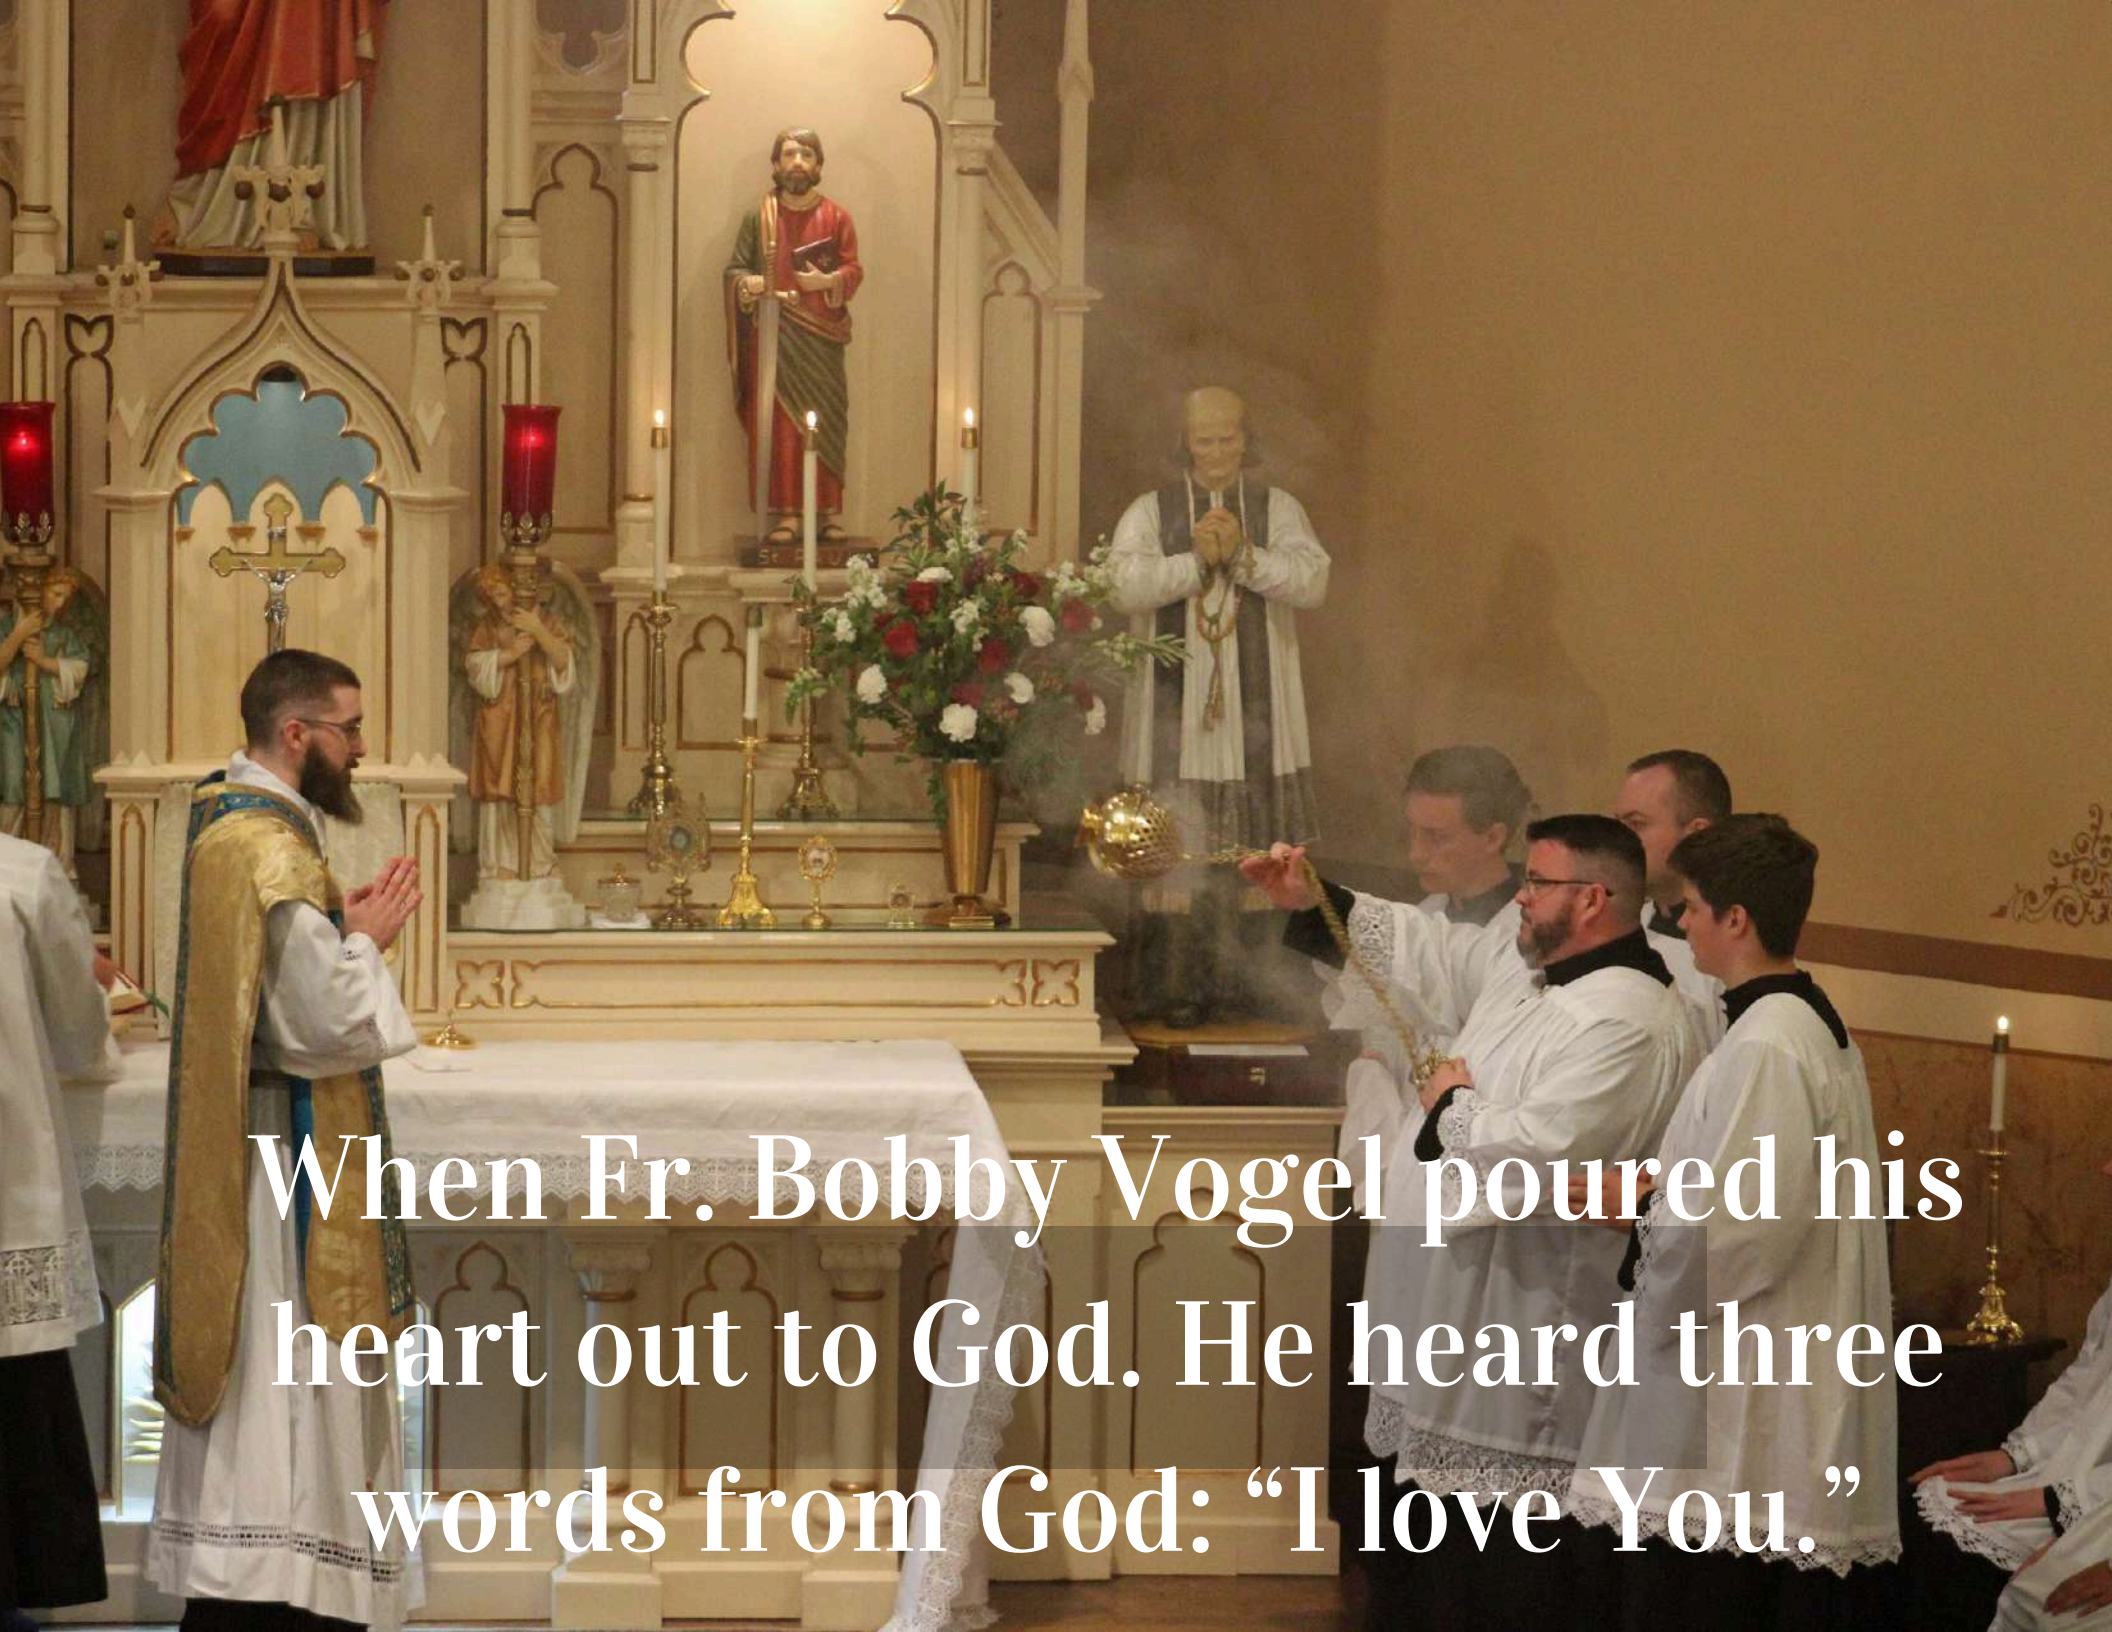

A photograph of a religious ceremony in a church. A priest in white vestments is performing a rite, possibly the anointing of hands, on a woman wearing a blue patterned dress. A man in a grey suit stands to the left, observing. The scene is set in a church with wooden pews and a patterned rug on the floor. A text overlay is present at the bottom of the image.

With this manutergium--the hand towel used by the priest during the anointing of the hands at ordination – given to his mother in pious tradition.

A photograph capturing a poignant moment in a church. A priest, dressed in a grey suit and a white stole, is seen from behind, embracing a man in a grey suit. The man is holding a white envelope. To the right, a woman with short blonde hair, wearing a blue dress with a circular pattern, stands with her back to the camera. The setting is a church interior with wooden pews and a patterned rug on the floor. A semi-transparent black box with white text is overlaid at the bottom of the image.

With this priestly stole, the first one he used to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation -- to his father.

When Fr. Bobby Vogel poured his heart out to God. He heard three words from God: "I love You."
