Noah Sherman, left & holding book, is a senior at Bishop Simon Brute College Seminary in Indianapolis. His parish assignment was at St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church in Bedford, Ind. Check out what Noah has to say about studying for the priesthood and growing closer to God below:

Inspiring Words!

"The primary way that my summer parish assignment has helped me to grow closer to God has been the time I am afforded to pray before the Eucharist and this is true for two reasons. The first is for the obvious reason of just getting to spend time with our Lord. The second has been an unexpected grace, that is, when I have crashed into other people's hours in the adoration chapel, some of the parishioners have let me into their lives, letting me pray with them and for them."

Noah said his summer assignment helped him understand the role of the priest better. "I've seen the many instances that Father Jegan, the pastor, has inconvenienced his own schedule to be able to meet the needs of the parish."
