Inspiration

Aidan is in his second parish assignment as a seminarian. He said parish assignments can at first be somewhat stressful with a lot of new people to meet. However, through seminary he has seen his relationship with God grow and change.

"Before going to seminary, I was somewhat transactional with how I approached God. Over the past year I have begun to see my prayer life as a relationship with God," he said.
